

THE LORD'S PRAYER

OUR

LUKE 11:1 (NIV)

One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”

HEBREWS 5:7 (NIV)

During the days of Jesus' life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with fervent cries and tears to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission.

LUKE 11:2-4

Father, hallowed be your name,
Your kingdom come.
Give us each day our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive
everyone who sins against us
And lead us not into temptation.

MATTHEW 6:9-13

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.

DIDACHE 8

Our Father in heaven, Make your name holy,
Establish your kingdom,
Let your will happen, On the earth just like in heaven.
Give us the bread we need for today,
And forgive us our debt, Just as we forgive our debtors;
And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one;
Because the power and the glory are yours forever.

TRADITIONAL VERSION

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name;
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.

1 PETER 2:9 (NIV)

But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

“The priesthood of all believers does not mean simply or even first of all that each of us is our own priest, but it means, above all, that we are all priests for everyone else.”

MATTHEW 6:9 (NIV)

This, then, is how you should pray: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name...”

1 TIMOTHY 2:1 (NLT)

I urge you, first of all, to pray for all people. Ask God to help them; intercede on their behalf, and give thanks for them.

REVELATION 7:9-10 (NLT)

After this I saw a vast crowd, too great to count, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing in front of the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white robes and held palm branches in their hands. And they were shouting with a great roar, “Salvation comes from our God who sits on the throne and from the Lamb!”
