EPHESIANS 2:1-5 (NLT)

[1] Once you were dead because of your disobedience and your many sins. [2] You used to live in sin, just like the rest of the world, obeying the devil—the commander of the powers in the unseen world. He is the spirit at work in the hearts of those who refuse to obey God.

EPHESIANS 2:1-5 (NLT)

[3] All of us used to live that way, following the passionate desires and inclinations of our sinful nature. By our very nature we were subject to God's anger, just like everyone else. [4] But God is so rich in mercy, and he loved us so much, [5] that even though we were dead because of our sins, he gave us life when he raised Christ from the dead. (It is only by God's grace that you have been saved!)

ROMANS 7:15, 18-19 (NLT)

[15] I don't really understand myself, for I want to do what is right, but I don't do it. Instead, I do what I hate. ... [18] And I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. I want to do what is right, but I can't. [19] I want to do what is good, but I don't. I don't want to do what is wrong, but I do it anyway.

ROMANS 7:24-25A (NLT)

[24] Oh, what a miserable person I am! Who will free me from this life that is dominated by sin and death? [25a]

Thank God! The answer is in Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 THESSALONIANS 5:16-18

(NLT) Always be joyful. Never stop praying. Be thankful in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you who belong to Christ Jesus.

PHILIPPIANS 4:11A-13 (NIV)

I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do all this through him who gives me strength.

Let me be thankful.

First, I was never robbed before.

Second, although they took my purse, they didn't take my life.

Third, although they took my all, it was not much.

Fourth, it was I who was robbed and not I who did the robbing.
