

1 John 4:7-11 (NLT)

[7] Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God. Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God. [8] But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love. [9] God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him

1 John 4:7-11 (NLT)

[10] This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins. [11] Dear friends, since God loved us that much, we surely ought to love each other.

The Love of God

1 John 4:7-11

1 John 4:7- (NLT)

Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God.

Four Kinds of Love

The background of the slide is an abstract, textured composition. It features a dark, deep blue base color with intricate, swirling patterns in a slightly lighter shade of blue. Interspersed throughout are numerous small, bright orange and yellow specks, resembling stars or sparks. The overall effect is one of depth and complexity, with the textures appearing to flow and swirl across the frame.

1 John 4:7b-8 (NLT)

Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God. But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

1 John 4:9-10 (NLT)

God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him. This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins.

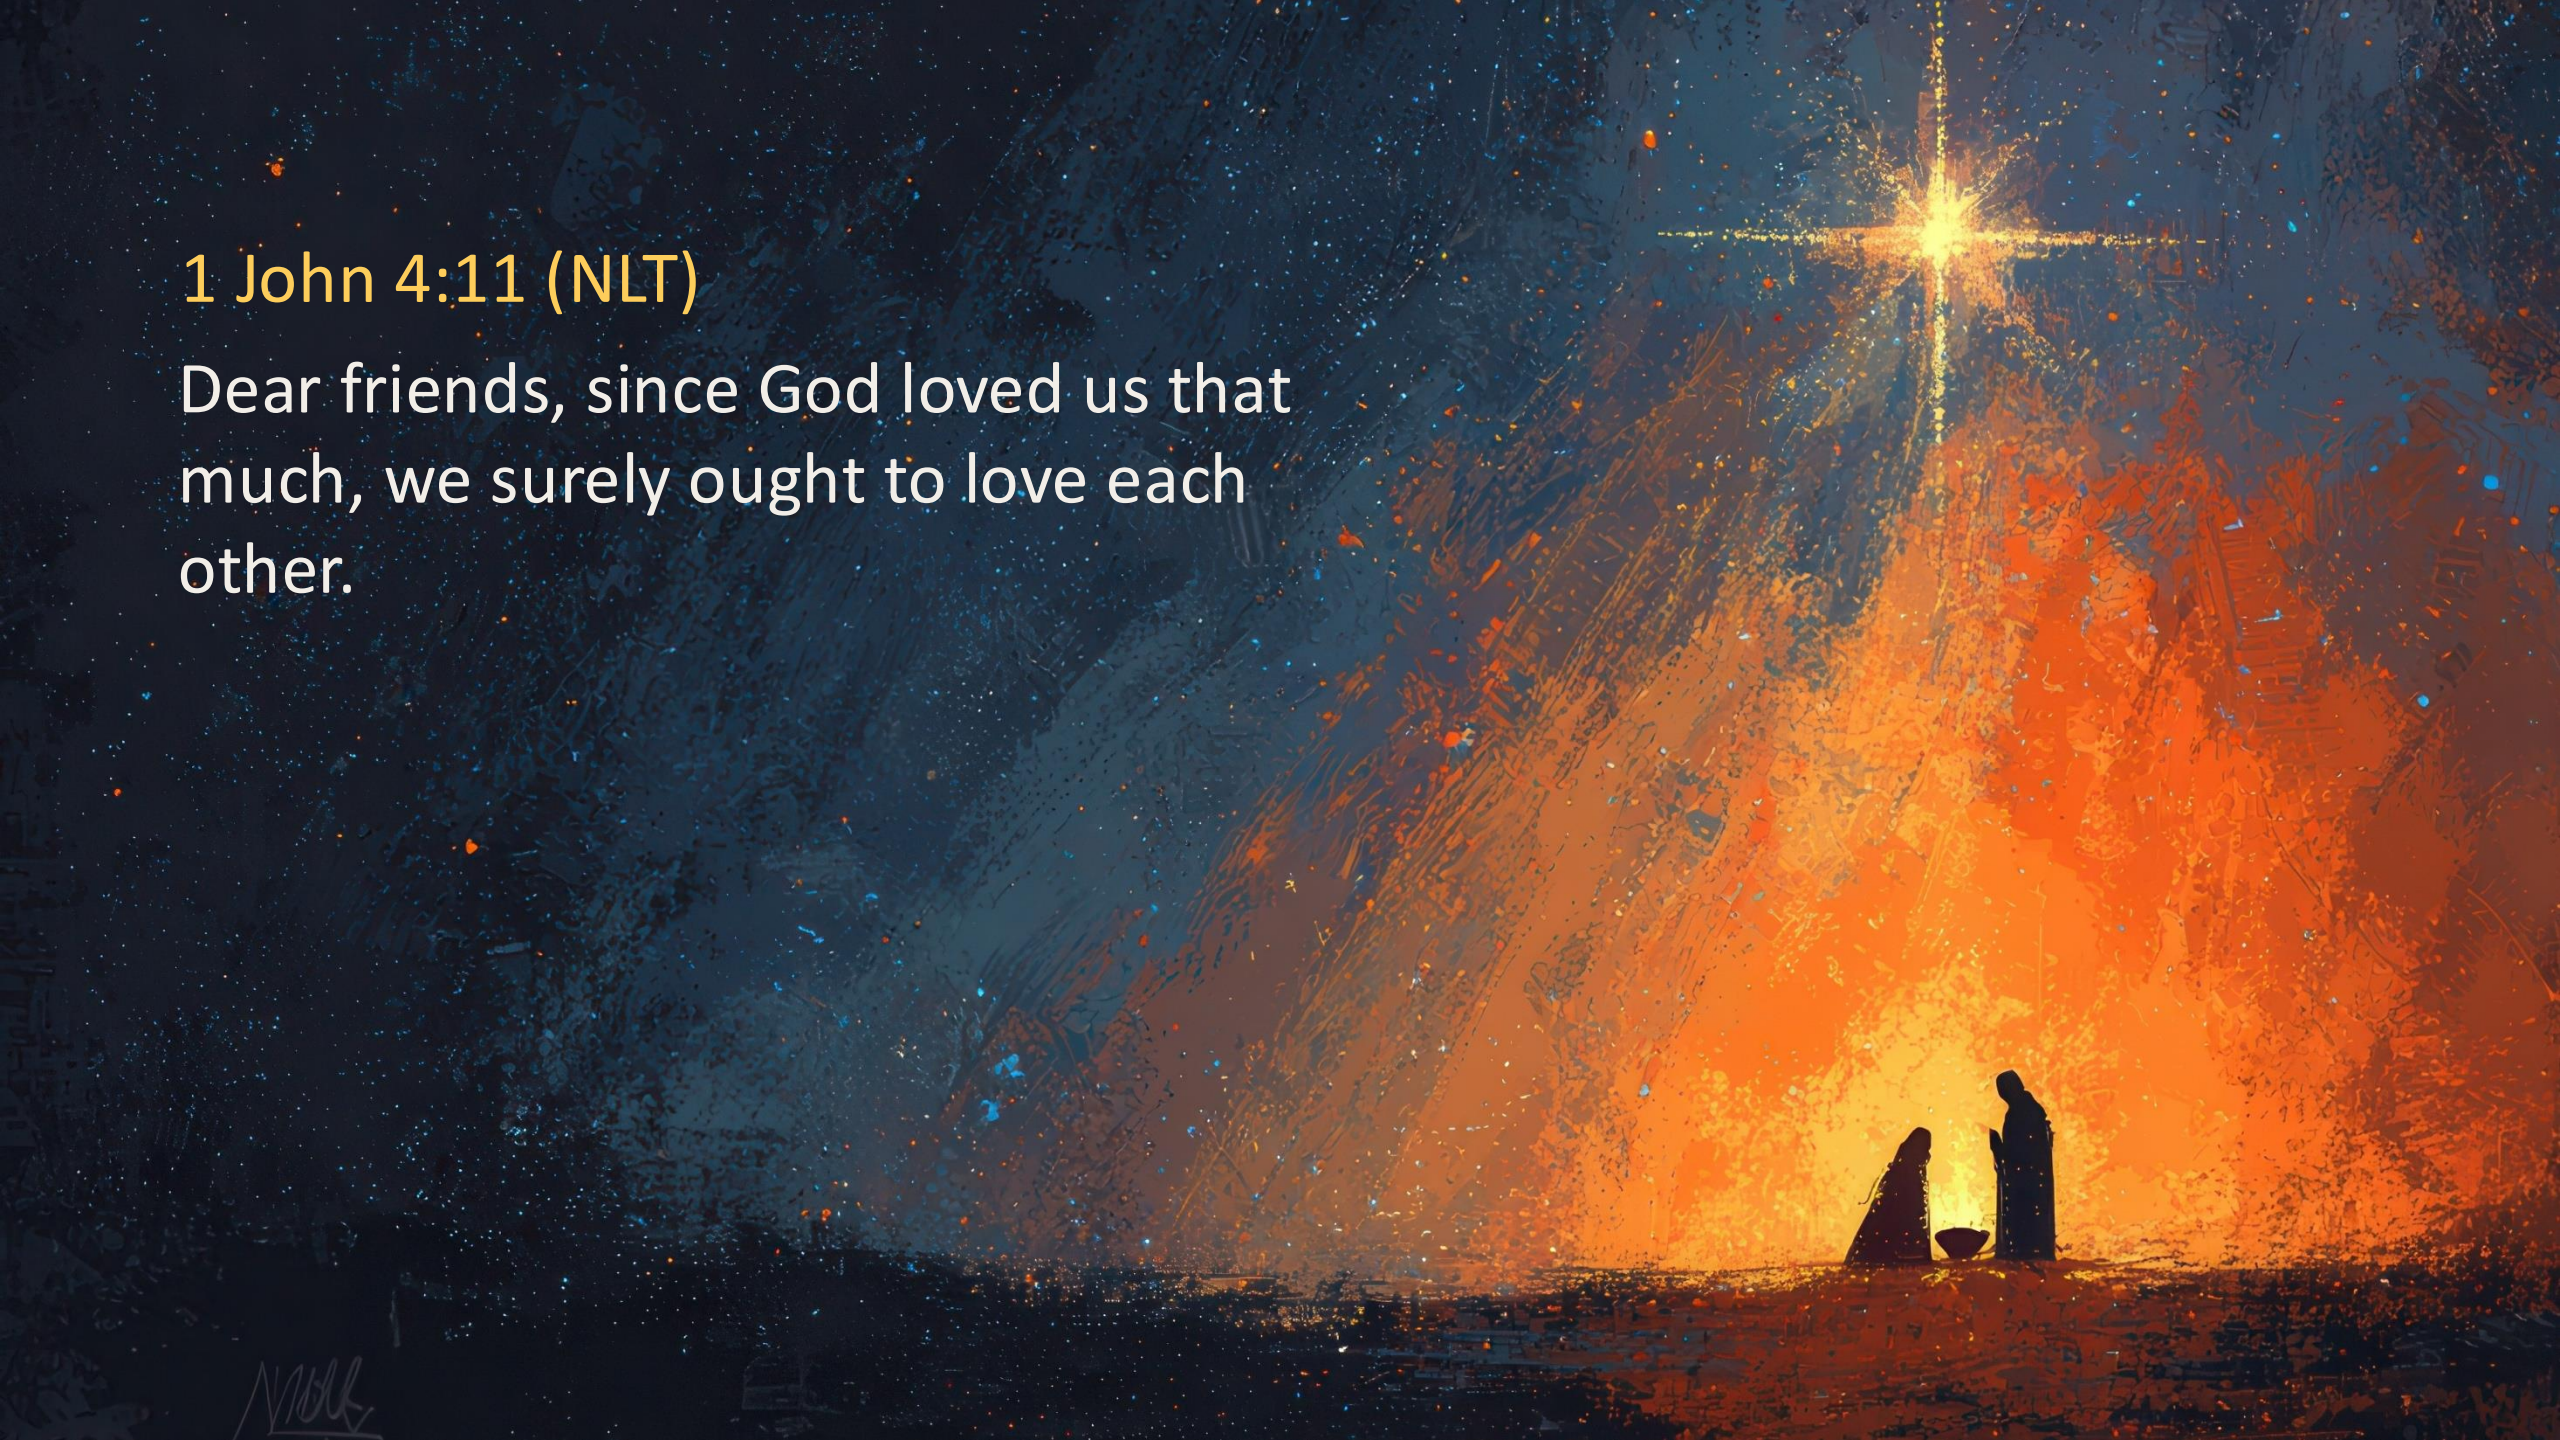

Romans 5:8 (NLT)

But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners.

1 John 4:11 (NLT)

Dear friends, since God loved us that much, we surely ought to love each other.

Matthew 5:44-45a, 47 (NLT)

But I say, love your enemies! Pray for those who persecute you! In that way, you will be acting as true children of your Father in heaven. ... If you are kind only to your friends, how are you different from anyone else? Even pagans do that.
