

ISAIAH 42:1-12 (NIV)

[1] “Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit in him, and he will bring justice to the nations. [2] He will not shout or cry out, or raise his voice in the streets. [3] A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out. In faithfulness he will bring forth justice; [4] he will not falter or be discouraged till he establishes justice on earth. In his teaching the islands will put their hope.”

ISAIAH 42:1-12 (NIV)

[5] This is what God the LORD says—the Creator of the heavens, who stretches them out, who spreads out the earth with all that springs from it, who gives breath to its people, and life to those who walk on it: [6] “I, the LORD, have called you in righteousness; I will take hold of your hand. I will keep you and will make you to be a covenant for the people and a light for the Gentiles, [7] to open eyes that are blind, to free captives from prison and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness.

ISAIAH 42:1-12 (NIV)

[8] “I am the LORD; that is my name! I will not yield my glory to another or my praise to idols. [9] See, the former things have taken place, and new things I declare; before they spring into being I announce them to you.”

ISAIAH 42:1-12 (NIV)

[10] Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise from the ends of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, you islands, and all who live in them. [11] Let the wilderness and its towns raise their voices; let the settlements where Kedar lives rejoice. Let the people of Selac sing for joy; let them shout from the mountaintops. [12] Let them give glory to the LORD and proclaim his praise in the islands.
